Poetry Section Those We Love

... (from Yvonne Harvey)

Those we love don't go away;
 They walk beside us every day
 Unseen, unheard, but always near
 Still loved, still missed and very dear

Feel no guilt in laughter; they know how much you care
 Feel no sorrow in a smile that they're not here to share
 You cannot grieve forever; they would not want you to They'd hope that you can carry on the way you always do

Recollections will last forever
 And the ways you show you cared
 Of the days you spent together
 And all the happiness you shared

Don't miss our Golf Tournament May 31st

Staff Appreciation Day

Marie Pavuk (left) receives a delicious meal of ham, scalloped potatoes and vegetables along with a cupcake and soft drink

Let memories surround you; a word someone may say
 Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
 That brings them back as clearly as though they were still here
 And fills you with the feelings that they are always near
 For if you keep the moments, you will never be apart
 And they will live forever, locked safe within your heart.

Feature Profile Joe Shalla

Joseph Shalla was born on March 2nd, 1928 at Whitney, Ontario. He was the second child in a family of twelve. He began his career at the tender age of 16 with the Department of Lands and Forest from 1947-1954 at Kapuskasing, as a Scaler and also worked in Algonquin Park as a Game Control and Fire Protection Officer. In 1951 he was the "Outstanding right wing" for Hearst Lumber Kings, NOHA Intermediate "B" Champions. In 1955 Joe was a Shock Force Foreman; in 1956 a Senior Fire Deputy in Timmins; in 1958 Acting Chief Forest Ranger also in Timmins. From 1959 – 1961 he was the Assistant and Acting Forest Protection Supervisor and from 1963-1973 Chief Ranger in Parry Sound. From 1973 to his retirement in 1986 he was the Parks Supervisor for the MNR.

In Joe's Certificate of Excellence from the MNR on his retirement, the following comments were recorded: "...a good type of young man and does work at many jobs" – Thomas McCormick, Chief Ranger, 1948; "...you will find Shalla a man not only capable of handling men and assuming responsibility, but his is the personality to meet the public as well." D.N. Ormand, District Forester, 1955; "...he is capable of taking over a small or large fire, has good organizing ability and is a conscientious worker." W. Kitt, Chief Ranger, 1955; "...Joe Shalla has demonstrated excellence as a leader, coordinator, social organizer and communicator both within the MNR and the communities in which he has worked!" MNR Staff, May 30, 1986.

One of the highlights of Joe's life was finding the plane that crashed north of Cochrane in 1951. The famous "Bashin' Bill" Barilko of the Toronto Maple Leafs had been on that plane when it crashed. When Joe heard a helicopter pilot mention spotting what looked like an aircraft wreck in dense bush 70 to 100 kilometers north of Cochrane, he immediately thought of Bill Barilko who had disappeared 11 years previously. Joe was among members of the Department of Lands & Forest and OPP Search party that went to the muskeg-dense wreckage site on June 6, 1962. Joe spotted the compass, still intact 11 years after the crash. The OPP gave permission for Joe, an avid hockey fan, to keep the compass. In Barilko's five-year NHL career from 1946 he had won four Stanley Cups and scored the most significant Stanley Cup winning goal for the Leafs. In game five of the 1950-51 Stanley Cup finals against the Montreal Canadians on April 21, Barilko's overtime goal gave the Leafs a 3-2 victory. Four months later, just as his hockey career was taking off, Barilko disappeared while returning from a weekend fishing trip in northern Ontario. He was in a single-engine private plane flown by family dentist Dr. Henry Hudson.

After 60 years, the treasured compass salvaged from this plane wreck has been donated by Joe Shalla to the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto. Joe wanted to make sure it's well looked after and didn't want to give it out to just anybody.

Joe was admitted to Pinecrest at Belvedere on February 17, 2015 and is happy to join his wife Claire who has resided at the Home since September 30, 2014. We look forward to getting to know them better and trust they will enjoy many years of quality time spent with us.

Ever Wonder ...?

Why love is not finding the perfect person,
but learning to see the imperfect person perfectly?
Why since light travels faster than sound,
people appear bright until you hear them speak?
Why the things that come to those who wait may be the things left by those who got there first?
